

Modern Slavery Act 2015 - Statement

This statement sets out Town & Country Meats Group Limited actions to understand all potential modern slavery risks in relation to its business and to put in place steps aimed at ensuring that there is no slavery or human trafficking in its business and supply chains and will be reviewed on a regular basis.

We are a Meat Wholesalers purchasing and selling to both the UK and abroad.

We are committed to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in our supply chains or in any part of our business. We are committed to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business relationships and to implementing and enforcing effective systems and controls to ensure slavery and human trafficking is not taking place anywhere in our supply chains.

Our approach to doing business is on a fair and honest basis where all of the supply chain benefits.

The organisation operates the following policies that describe its approach to the identification of modern slavery risks and steps to be taken to prevent slavery and human trafficking in its operations:

- Ethical Trading, Modern Slavery & Social Accountability Policy Statement
- Equal Opportunities Policy
- Whistleblowing Policy
- BRC accreditation

As part of our initiative to identify and mitigate risk we have in place systems to:

- Identify and assess potential risk areas in our supply chains
- Ensuring all Staff Agencies are registered and have gangmaster licence
- Mitigate the risk of slavery and human trafficking occurring in our supply chains
- Protect whistle blowers

We have zero tolerance to slavery and human trafficking. To ensure all those in our supply chain and contractors comply with our values and ethics. We have in place our BRC standard. This consists of monitoring and visits to our suppliers.

To ensure a high level of understanding of the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking in our supply chains and our business, we provide training to our Manager's.
